A Boat on the Shore : a Mural Installation of Photographs

This photography installation is a sample of a mural about a boat and the sea and has twelve abstract photographs from underneath the boat that I took in Jericho Beach Vancouver in May 2017.

Each photograph measures 7.36” x 11” and shows the images that the sea paints on this boat when the waves cover it in the evening. The pictures have variations of forms, textures and shades of blue.

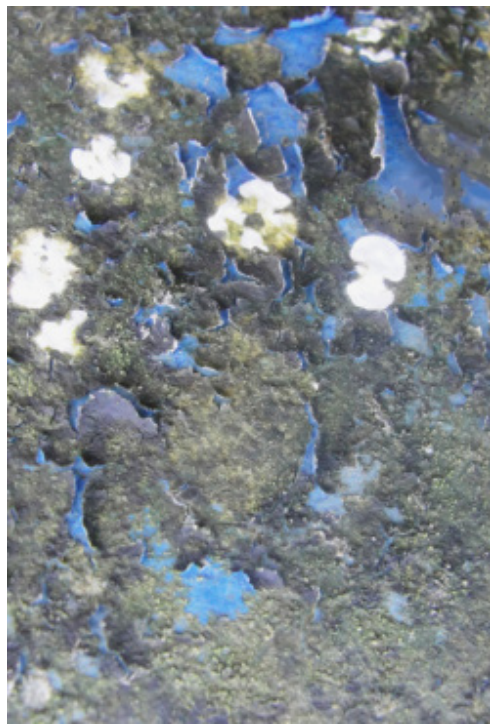

This mural can be mounted on a wall in a series of 12. It’s in the pdf form of an ebook since I would like to make this installation portable and easy to print.

I sincerely hope that you will like these images that the waves left at the bottom of this boat. I will be using these pictures for an interactive ebook The Lighthouse, the Bird and the Poem on the Shore.

Thank you always for looking.
